

14TH ANNUAL POSTER CONTEST

Conserve to Preserve Kids and Conservation® Poster Contest Details, Terms and Conditions

New Jersey Natural Gas (NJNG) invites all fifth-grade students within its service territory, including those who are home-schooled, to participate in our 14th Annual Conserve to Preserve (CTP) Kids and Conservation Poster Contest.

To get you started, we'll provide teachers with a starter kit, including a booklet filled with energy-saving tips for students to choose from as the theme for their posters.

Contest Rules

Each school must coordinate their entries, using the following guidelines:

- To register: Contact Carolyn Cannon at 732-938-1035 or ccannon@njng.com. You'll receive an email with a starter kit, including 2020 contest materials, details and deadlines.
 - Poster requirements: must illustrate an energy-saving tip(s)
 - 8 ½" x 11" piece of plain white paper (supplied by the school)
 - may use any art medium except clip art or 3-D designs
- The following information must be provided in the email submission:
- Student's name
 - Student's school, teacher's name and class room number/identification; or home school association representative
- Submission details: Entries must be submitted by end-of-day on Monday, November 30, 2020. Posters should be scanned or photographed and submitted via email to ccannon@njng.com.
 - Winner selection and prizes: NJNG team members will judge the posters based on content, accuracy, creativity and overall presentation. All participating students will receive a certificate of recognition for their involvement.

NJNG will select three winners. Each will receive:

- a personal tablet
- a $1,000 contribution to the student's school or home school association for an energy conservation or environmental project
- $100 for the student's teacher
- $500 for the student's class to treat themselves to something special

Winning posters will be featured on njng.com. NJNG will notify winners in January 2021. The winners' names, artwork and schools may be used in various NJNG publications including, but not limited to, customer bill inserts, newsletters, newspapers, news releases and websites.
